

MORRILL & ASSOCIATES PC

Edward J. Derwinski

Mr. Derwinski serves as Legislative Consultant to Morrill & Associates.

His distinguished governmental career includes service as:

- Secretary of the United States Department of Veterans Affairs (1989-1992);
- Undersecretary for Security Assistance, Science and Technology for the United States Department of State (1983-1986);
- Counselor of the Department of State (1983-1986);
- Member of Congress, Fourth Congressional District of Illinois (1959-1983);
- Delegate to the United Nations with rank of Ambassador (1971);
- Chairman of United States Congressional Delegation to the Inter-Parliamentary Union (1959-1982);
- Illinois State Representative (1957-1958); and
- Member, Illinois-Indiana Bi-Port Commission.

Former Secretary of the United States Department of Veterans Affairs (1989-1992);
Former Member of Congress, Fourth Congressional District of Illinois (1959-1983); and Former Delegate to the United Nations with rank of Ambassador (1971).

From 1950-1958, Derwinski served as President and Chief Executive Officer of the West Pullman Savings and Loan Association in Chicago.

He served in the United States Army during World War II, and thereafter earned a Bachelor of Science from Loyola University in Chicago.

Long active in Republican political campaigns, Derwinski has served as “ethnic liaison” to every Republican presidential nominee from Dwight Eisenhower through George W. Bush. He also served as General Campaign Chairman for Peter Fitzgerald’s successful effort for the United States Senate.

The recipient of numerous awards and honors, Derwinski holds four honorary doctorate degrees.

Derwinski resides in Chicago, Illinois.